THE NEWSLETTER OF ST. STEPHEN LUTHERAN CHURCH

Williamsburg, Virginia

TRANSITIONS

When I walked into the church this morning, I was struck by the dichotomy of brown fallen leaves blowing across the driveway and the very warm, humid air. If I had shut my eyes, I would have thought that it is summer. If I were inside looking out, I would know it is fall. We are transitioning from one season into another.

St. Stephen is in the midst of transition, too. We are leaning into a different way of being church together. We are learning what is important. People are volunteering to do more. We are currently not doing some of the things we had done in the past, such as book studies. Our staff gives thanks for your patience when something gets forgotten. My prayer is that this is a time for us to discover new ways to live out God's call.

Pastor John Wertz, Assistant to the Bishop, led us in a workshop. We reviewed the past 40 years by decades. We saw strong social ministries, continued commitment to our benevolence, times when there was more than one pastor on staff, and several building projects. Add to this our ministry with William and Mary students, and changes brought to our Preschool. What lies ahead for us?

We will be calling a second pastor. Many expressed an appreciation of the continuity of having one pastor remain when the other leaves. This has also had people asking how old I am. A better question, one that gets to the heart of concerns, is "How long until Pastor Griffin retires?" My intent, my plan, my hope is to serve among you for five more years. (Sometimes God laughs when we say we have a plan!)

Our Congregation Council will begin to work through the process of establishing two committees, both composed of six people. One committee will write our Mission Site Profile, or MSP. This committee will complete the paperwork required to begin a national search. With the insights gleaned from our workshop, conversations with our young families, and our Preschool staff, our MSP will state what gifts and skills we would like a pastor to have. It also gives our financial, demographic and statistical information. We all should give our Parish Administrator, Sandy Peterkin, a huge thank you for keeping this information current on our reporting to the ELCA every year!

A Call Committee will be formed to review submissions from pastors. The committee will conduct interviews, most likely using a computer application that has a video component. This will narrow down the number of candidates to come for in-person interviews. Whomever is thought to be a good candidate will come to preach, and to socialize with us. Once our Call Committee and Congregation Council approve a candidate and a financial package, the congregation will vote on both.

Questions? My door is always open! Except at night. And on my days off. 😊

Blessings,
Pastor Cheryl Ann Griffin

MEN'S & WOMEN'S BREAKFASTS

- October 1 – Women are invited to join together for breakfast the first Tuesday of this month.
- October 3 – Men are invited to join together for breakfast the first Thursday of this month.

Both gatherings take place at 8:00 AM at the Colonial Pancake House, at the corner of Page Street and Penniman Road, Williamsburg, VA. The get-togethers promote conversation and friendship in a casual setting.

HEALING SERVICE FOR ALL

Where in your life do you feel the need for healing? We will hold a Healing Service in our Worship Space on Thursday evening, October 10, at 7 PM. During this service, all who sense the need for God's healing in any aspect of their lives may join in prayer for others and themselves. Each individual will receive a word of blessing and prayer, and a laying on of hands – a sign that we are sealed by the Holy Spirit and marked forever with the cross of Christ, who is health and salvation for the whole world.

"THE DOORS ARE BROKEN..."

This was the battle cry at the 8:30 and 11:00 AM services on Sunday, September 8, 2019. The doors are not broken. The doors were constructed and installed properly. The culprit was DORIAN. Although the hurricane did not strike Williamsburg, the storm pushed winds and heavy moisture (humidity) in our area. The new doors, made of wood, absorbed five days of 100% humidity and increased in size by height, width and thickness. Until the humidity decreases, the doors will remain enlarged. When the fall and winter arrive, we will experience a reverse action, low humidity and low moisture. Then the doors will shrink and present another problem. Until we have a few seasons of expansion and contraction, we will experience these problems. As we are in the historic district, per the City of Williamsburg's Architectural Review Board, we could only use wood for our new doors, not aluminum painted black as was my original proposal. Please be patient.

The original cost of the doors was $31,395; however, with negotiations Nice Builders granted two reductions, the final cost being $26,600. The church received $25,777 in contributions and memorials.

Many church members have expressed to me how much they like the appearance of the new doors, the light transmitted through the glass into the Gathering Space, and the warm, welcoming feeling our doors give to members and visitors to our congregation. I personally thank everyone for their donations and memorials."

George Vonderheide, Property Committee

STEPHEN MINISTRY AT ST. STEPHEN

CARING FOR THE CAREGIVER

Caring for yourself is one of the most important – and one of the most overlooked – things you can do as a caregiver. Researchers know a lot about the effects of caregiving on health and well-being. The combination of loss, prolonged stress, and the toll of physical demands can place the caregiver at risk for health problems. Caregivers often report sleep deprivation, poor eating habits, failure to exercise, failure to care for themselves when ill, and failure to seek regular medical care, such as annual exams.

There may be little a caregiver can do to stop the impact of a chronic or progressive illness of the person for which they are caring. However, there are several things a caregiver can do to enhance their own personal well-being. They include:

1. Understand your feelings
There are no right or wrong feelings about becoming a caregiver. You may experience sadness, anger, grief, guilt, and loneliness. Give yourself permission to feel a range of emotions.
2. Forgive yourself for your feelings
Acknowledge whatever you are feeling and forgive yourself. In doing so, you empower yourself to cope with the situation.
3. Express your feelings
Talking with someone about your feelings often helps relieve the burden of unexpressed emotions. A friend, family member, pastor or Stephen Minister can listen without judgment.
4. Ask for help
Accepting help from others can be difficult. Letting others help is a step toward taking care of yourself.
5. Make time for yourself
Taking care of yourself can help you be a better caregiver. Do something for yourself every day. Caring for your own needs allows you to continue in your caregiving role.

Not every aspect of caregiving is burdensome. The caregiving role offers opportunities to share unique moment with the care receiver. These times can provide fertile ground for exchanging stories, reconciling conflicts or old wounds, and sharing truly loving experiences.

Receiving support from a Stephen Minister while you are undertaking this special role is a way to care for yourself. If you would like more information about seeking this kind of support, please contact Pastor Griffin or one of the Stephen Leaders (Jane Wills and Bill Dichtel).

Jane Wills, Stephen Leader

FACING CHANGE

Change is an inevitable part of life. Getting married, moving, and changing jobs or retiring are some of the most stressful things that will happen in our lives. Buying a new car, taking vacation and holidays are some of the least stressful things we do in our lives according to the Holmes Rahe Life Stress Inventory. We all know that life never comes one thing at a time. There are always a number of things going on in our lives at the same time.

You can face change and survive by using some strategies:

- Ask for help when/if you need it. God never intended us to through life alone. We survive because we have a strong community. We at St. Stephen are good at helping when we are asked and needed.
- Keep communications open and honest to navigate change successfully. If you feel you are having anxiety or conflict, seek to have a conversation for clarification or resolution.
- Create a special place where we can turn off the world and connect with ourselves. This may be listening to music, meditation, reading (such as scripture, devotions, or other positive material) or even doing yoga. It is an uninterrupted time to listen to ourselves and God.

Don't forget to plan for life as you navigate changes. Unexpected changes in health can really put you in unfamiliar territory. If you need help navigating these issues, I am here to help you. My door is open and my ringer is on.

Diana Tiller-Dichtel, Parish Nurse

PIZZA & GAME NIGHT

Come enjoy some pizza and play games with fellow St. Stephen members on October 18, 5:30 PM in the Fellowship Hall. Pizza (variety of flavors) will be provided, for a donation. If you'd like, bring a dessert to share, and your favorite games for a rousing evening together! If you cannot or would prefer not to eat pizza, feel free to bring something for yourself and join in the fun and games!

Please assist us by marking the number of family members attending on the green sheet in the Sunday Bulletin so we have enough pizza for all of you!

188 SMILES AND THANKS

... from the students in Grove that received new school shoes! Watch for the pictures of smiling faces on our monitors in the narthex. My personal thanks to everyone in the congregation who participated so generously by purchasing shoes or giving me money to do so. It has given me great joy over the past 14 years to be able to do this! My sincere thanks and love for all you do for others!!

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Love animals? So did St. Francis! Bring your pets, companion animals, and service and other working animals for individual hands-on blessings, to be offered by St. Stephen's Pastor Cheryl Ann Griffin. The blessing of the animals will be held at 10 AM on Saturday, October 5, 2019, at St. Stephen Lutheran Church and Preschool on the forecourt, just outside the front doors facing Jamestown Road. Note that October 5 is also the first day of An Occasion for the Arts on Merchants Square.

The blessing of the animals at St. Stephen commemorates St. Francis of Assisi Feast Day (October 4). Canonized as a saint in the year 1228, St. Francis is the patron saint of animals and the environment. Many animals all over the world are blessed every October, commemorating his feast day.

SECOND ANNUAL MULTI-FAITH COMMUNITY SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING

Historic Area Religions Together (HART) welcomes ALL to its Second Annual Multi-faith Community Service of Thanksgiving, to be held at 7:00 PM, Monday, November 25, at Walsingham Academy, McAuley

Auditorium, 1100 Jamestown Road, Williamsburg, Virginia.

Experience a diverse, interfaith community service during which we join together – to give thanks for our blessings – with neighbors of different religious traditions. Participate in thanksgiving through prayers, readings, poems, songs and more.

HART exists to build relationships among faith communities in Virginia's Historic Triangle.

Thank You

I just want to take a moment to say thank you! Your recent donation to Williamsburg Area Faith In Action (WFIA) in the amount of $1,000 is making a difference in the lives of seniors in the Greater Williamsburg area even now.

Throughout the community, we are widely known for providing transportation to seniors, but what many don't know is that our transportation services stretch far beyond the scope of medical needs. Just like anyone else, our care receivers have places they would like to go other than the doctor's office, and at WFIA we see to it that they get to those places like the beauty parlor.

Oftentimes when I share that we offer this type of transportation, I am met with strange looks, as many don't understand the importance of such transportation. While it is not one of our primary services, it is one that is so very important for those, like Jennie, who are unable to take care of their hair at home. Jennie, an 85-year old woman who lives alone, suffers with arthritis, which makes it impossible for her to wash, and even comb her own hair. Jennie enjoys her weekly trips to the hair salon. This weekly outing not only ensures that Jennie's hair gets the care and attention it needs, but it is also an opportunity for her to get some attention as well. She enjoys socializing with her stylist and other patrons in the salon, and they all just adore her. For those two hours a week, Jennie gets to take part in the normalcy of the world around her.

Your contribution has helped to give Jennie, and others like her a small piece of their lives back. On behalf of Jennie, and the hundreds of others we serve, thank you! We couldn't do it without you!

Ashleigh Cooke, Executive Director

On behalf of LINK of Hampton Roads, we would like to acknowledge and thank you for your contribution and support of our agency through your donation of $500 to A Peaceful Place. Your donation was a blessing towards our efforts to help those less fortunate in our community. Once again, thank you for your generosity!

Lynne Finding, Executive Director

MUSIC NEWS

All Saints Sunday Celebration

On Sunday, November 3, we celebrate the festival of All Saints remembering our St. Stephen members and family who have gone to the church Triumphant this past year. While we revere those who have gone before us in faith and remember them in love, we are reminded that God unites all the faithful in to the one holy catholic and apostolic church – the church on earth and the church in heaven through holy baptism. In holy baptism God makes saints out of sinners. In Holy Communion God forgives the sins of all the saints. On this day we give thanks for all the saints “who from their labors rest,” who have fought the good fight, who have gained the crown.

On Sunday, November 3 at both worship services, our choirs will present a large choral work by Aaron David Miller: Behold Your Saints in Glory: Worshiping with the Saints. This exceptional work for choir, organ, trumpet and assembly is a complete multi-movement programmatic piece, including readings and prayers from the saints through the ages. Some of those saints include Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274), Francis of Assisi (1182-1226), Patrick of Ireland (c.372-466), and Mother Teresa of Calcutta (1910-1997). Holy Communion will be included in our assembly’s liturgy as well as a reading of names deceased this past year in the congregation.

“A Strolling Afternoon Musicales” (AKA an Organ Crawl!) on Sunday, November 3.

Here’s your chance to see the inside of the worship spaces of our Jamestown Road neighbors and to experience their worship music! Our Matins, Chancel and Handbell Choirs will all be a part of this fun afternoon. Refreshments will be served at your “final destination” – Williamsburg United Methodist Church. Come here a part or all this afternoon’s array of musical gifts from our neighboring congregations.

- 3:00 - First Church of Christ, Scientist. Tonia Herrin, pianist.

- 3:45 - St. Stephen Lutheran Church. Karen Areheart Ives, Director of Music
- 4:30 - Temple Beth El. Nesim Halyo, Director and Conductor
- 5:15 - Williamsburg United Methodist Church, Tom Marshall, Organist

ENDOWMENT FUND NEWS

Do you enjoy Living Lutheran Magazine?

Most member families have been receiving Living Lutheran magazine this year through a congregational subscription provided by the Endowment Fund. We’d like to hear your comments about the publication. Do you find it interesting, useful? Would you like to continue receiving it? Please give us your opinions via the sheet in the Sunday Bulletin or share your thoughts and preference with any member of the Endowment Fund Committee.

You can also read or listen to full digital versions of the Living Lutheran on line. It’s easy to access, user-friendly with a user guide. No account log-in is required. To read go to www.livinglutheran.org/issues. To listen to an audio version of every article in each issue, go to www.livinglutheran.org/audio-issues.

Please help grow the Endowment Fund by making your own enduring gift. Checks may be made payable to St. Stephen Lutheran Church. Write “Endowment Fund” on the memo line. If using a regular giving envelope, post the amount and “Endowment Fund” in the “Other” box.

Did You Know that Memorial Gifts may be designated to the Endowment Fund? You only have to specify that’s where you’d like your memorial gift to go. Your remembrance thus becomes an enduring gift for future ministries of St. Stephen Lutheran Church.

Please talk with any member of the Endowment Fund Committee to learn more about making your own enduring gift now or through a bequest. The members of the Committee are Joyce Beene, Jane deSolms, Glenn Joppa, Bob Harman, and Charlene Smith

ST. STEPHEN LUTHERAN PRESCHOOL

Another year has begun!

After a very successful series of Summer Camp weeks, our Preschool teachers and staff greeted new and returning children and parents the day after Labor Day! There were a lot of smiles as well as a few tears – from both children and parents.

Blessing of the backpacks, students and teachers on Sunday, September 1

Our first scheduled St. Stephen Preschool Spirit Night at Chick-fil-A in the Monticello Marketplace was held on September 25. It is always nice to see so many of our children, parents, and members of our congregation together – enjoying dinner and meeting each other outside of the School and Church.

Be sure to look for our student’s artwork at An Occasion for the Arts on Saturday, October 5 or Sunday, October 6. Mrs. Kirkpatrick, our Preschool Art Teacher, always has wonderful examples of our students’ artwork on display.

We are settling into a routine with the Williamsburg-James City County Library’s Mobile Services Van (Bookmobile) coming to our school twice each month. It comes on a Thursday and a Friday so that all of our students are able to borrow books, begin their love of reading, and their love of the public library.

We are thankful for all of the support that St. Stephen continues to give our Preschool. Over the summer, Randy Punched joined our Lead Teacher Susan Berry-

Ruane in painting the big room and the reading room. The fresh colors make the areas bright, warm and invite learning. Thank you for the supplies provided at the beginning of the year and, of course, the continuous flow of yogurt containers for use in our Art Class.

Evangelical Lutheran Church in America
God's work. Our hands.

THANK YOU so much for all of your generosity for Hospice House on “God’s Work. Our Hands.” Sunday! It was fabulous to see the intergenerational event in the Gathering Space on September 8 as children and adults together painted pinecone flowers and decoupage vases to decorate and cheer residents in the rooms at Hospice House. Thanks to Lori Harms for leading that.

We also filled the little house to overflowing with the following items: Bottled water - 37 bottles, Soft drinks - 12 cans, Apple juice - 16 individual boxes, Berry juice - 8 individual boxes plus 2 half-gallon bottles, Tea bags – 370, Coffee K cups – 36, Cake/cookie/brownie mixes – 31, Multi-surface cleaner – 3, Disinfectant wipes - 27 containers, Bleach - 3 gallons, Liquid dish soap – 9, Liquid hand soap – 4, Dishwasher pods – 198, Laundry soap pods – 47, Men’s black t-shirts – 4, Men’s white t-shirts – 4, Disposable razors – 68, White bath towels – 5, Aluminum foil – 6, Parchment paper – 2, Large kitchen trash bags – 200+, Napkins - 6 packages, Paper plates - 2 packages, Paper towels – 18+, Toilet paper - 64 rolls.

Amazing! Thanks to Jane and Rich Gingerich for delivery. And last but not least, many thanks to all who came on September 27 to work on the grounds and in the gardens at Hospice House. Thanks to Susan Neidlinger for organizing that activity. We truly did God’s work for Hospice House, with ALL of our hands.

Nancy Egloff

HOSPICE HOUSE
& Support Care of Williamsburg

We are truly overwhelmed by your generosity and thoughtfulness of your donation to Hospice House. We have so many guests and families that will benefit from each of these items. Our “wish list” was filled to abundance. You are a wonderful example of God’s work in today’s society.

Bernice Todd, Volunteer, Hospice House

OCTOBER BAPTISMAL ANNIVERSARIES

The significance of baptism, Luther teaches in the Small Catechism, is “that the old creature in us with all sins and evil desires is to be drowned and die through daily contrition and repentance, and on the other hand that daily a new person is to come forth and rise up to live before God in righteousness and purity forever.”

Your baptismal anniversary is an opportunity to light a baptismal candle and to give some prayer time to reflecting on your experiences during the past year on your journey in faith!
