October 2026

THE LEGACY WE LEAVE

Late October brings an undeniable shift in the air. The leaves begin to fall, the days grow noticeably shorter, and the natural world prepares for a quiet transition. It is a season that naturally turns our thoughts toward the passage of time, prompting us to consider the transitions in our own lives and the legacy we are building.

At the end of this month, on October 25, our Old Testament reading brings us to one of Scripture's most poignant moments: the death of Moses (Deuteronomy 34). For 40 grueling years, Moses led the Israelites through the wilderness. He endured their complaints, mediated their conflicts, and carried the heavy burden of leadership with the singular goal of reaching the Promised Land. Yet, God brings him to the top of Mount Nebo to look out over the plains of Jericho, telling him, "I have let you see it with your eyes, but you shall not cross over there."

At first glance, this feels deeply tragic. Moses puts in decades of grueling work but doesn't get to enjoy the reward. However, his story becomes a profound witness to faithful stewardship. In the end, Moses' calling was to bring the people as far as he could, and then entrust the future to Joshua and to God. He was planting seeds for a harvest he would not personally gather.

We see a similar kind of forward-looking legacy in Luke, whom the church celebrates earlier in the month on October 18. Luke was not one of the original twelve disciples; as far as we know, he did not witness the Sermon on the Mount or stand at the foot of the cross. Yet, he dedicated himself to carefully investigating and recording the life of Jesus and the acts of the early church. Luke wrote his Gospel so that future generations, people he would never meet, could encounter the living Christ. Like Moses, Luke served a future he could not fully see.

Both Moses and Luke challenge the way we typically measure success. We live in a culture that demands immediate, visible results. If we put in the effort, we want to see the payoff. But the Kin-dom of God operates on a much longer timeline.

As we look at our own congregation, these texts invite us to ask a clarifying question: What kind of legacy are we building for the next generation? To make this reflection practical, I invite each of us to write a short prayer or blessing for those who will join our community in years to come. Take a moment to leave your prayer in the designated basket in our Gathering Space over the next month, as a simple act of hope and encouragement for future members.

Every time we teach a Sunday school class, we are shaping faith that may sustain a child decades from now. Every time we give generously to care for our building, we are helping preserve a sanctuary for people who have not yet moved into our community. Every time we extend compassion to our neighbors, we are writing a living Gospel for the world to read long after our own chapter closes.

Enduring ministry is rarely about finishing the work ourselves. It is about running the leg of the race entrusted to us, doing the work God has given us today, and trusting that the Holy Spirit will carry the vision forward into a Promised Land we may never see.

Let us pray: Gracious God, as we journey together in this season of change, grant us courage to serve faithfully, wisdom to plant seeds for the future, and trust to release the outcome into your loving hands. Bless those who will come after us, that they may discover your presence in this community and continue the work of your grace. May our lives bear witness to your enduring love, now and for generations to come. Amen.

In Christ,
Pastor Jon

VISIONING SESSION #1

Join us the morning of Saturday, October 17, 9:00 a.m. – noon for a forward-looking discussion about the ministry of St. Stephen for the next five years. We will be focusing, in particular, on our shared assets and passions and how we might best use them for ministry.

CONGREGATION COUNCIL

What's Happening at Congregation Council

The Congregation Council met on Tuesday evening, September 15. After devotions and an opening prayer, individual items of concern and blessing were aired and discussed and an additional prayer was offered.

Russ Dabel, President of the Council was unable to attend this meeting, so Beth Grant, Vice President of Council, presided. Minutes from the July meeting which had been distributed were approved.

Old Business:

- The HVAC System is being reviewed by the US distributors of the system based in Texas. They feel the system is working correctly although we have some concerns about function of the system during high-humidity months. We anticipate it will be difficult to determine if it is working well for all seasons until we move into summer 2027 and we may look into establishing an escrow account holding back the final 10% of payment until that time to be sure that it truly is working up to specifications.

- The Web Site Committee is looking into changing the domain location and name for the website before proceeding on with full site development.
- The Call Committee had sent the call on to the Bishop and his staff but we have not received back any potential applicants for an associate pastoral position to this point.
- The Member Update Committee has worked diligently to determine status of our membership list. This is more difficult than it might seem in the age of on-line attendance which is difficult to track. After their diligent work, a list of those on our rolls who are felt to be non-participants has been created and Pastor Jon has composed a very kind letter inquiring on their interest and status so we can be responsive to their needs and respectful of their wishes. That will be mailed soon.
- The Visioning Process for the Church is planned for later this fall, but is not ready for launch at this time.
- The Finance Committee will begin the 2027 Budgeting process soon and all committees, ministries, etc., should turn in their budget requests to Jane deSolms before October 1.
- The Endowment Committee has some additional funds that they can distribute this year to church projects: It was pointed out that projects such as the Men's Retreat and reimbursements for Vacation Bible School expenses may be sought through that source.
- Council Liaison Assignments were again reviewed as they had not been completed at the July meeting. Members of Council from prior years remained assigned to their prior committees. Our three new Council Members are assigned to committees as follows: Sonya Lim - Personnel; David Sulouff - Faith Formation; Sandy Johnson - Campus Ministry.

New Business:

- Council Members will be installed at the church services on Sunday, September 20.
- Treasurer's Report suggests that collections are somewhat behind pledging although the significance of this is difficult to assess since many contributions come in lump sums from IRA or similar accounts.

- William and Mary Alumni Event: Pastor Gerry has worked very hard to track down LSA Alumni which has been very difficult. Often, William & Mary has not had official records of participation in church activities and tracking names and current contact information has been challenging. Despite that, it is coming together. A suggestion was made to include majors of study and home towns of those attending on name tags to promote mixing and discussions with the congregation.
- Luke 10 Program on Social Justice: Training was held in Baltimore and Gerry and Sandy Johnson, and Christina Nelson attended and Paula Agor is also involved and training. They will lead our church in efforts along these lines in the next few months.
- Faith Formation gets underway on Monday, September 21 and three additional Preschool families will participate bringing the participating group up to about 20.
- Preschool has launched and is reportedly off to a very good start.
- The Stewardship "Time and Talent Survey" got underway in the church services on Sunday, September 12. Those who did not complete a survey at church will be mailed surveys and will be asked to return them by mail, to the church office, or in the offering plates. Results are being compiled as they come in.
- A question was raised about where the "Reconciling in Christ" effort stands, the effort to be noted as a welcoming congregation to the LGBTQIA+ community. It is likely that that issue will be brought up for a vote at the January Congregational Meeting.

No other issues were raised and the meeting was adjourned.

Join Pastor Jon on the Sundays of October 4 and 18, and November 15 and 29 for an evening walk around our area. We will aim to amble for an hour, starting at 6:00 p.m. Meet in the forecourt unless otherwise directed!

BLESSING OF PETS

This year, the celebration of St. Francis of Assisi (October 4) falls on a Sunday. Rather than a separate blessing service, you are invited to bring your well-behaved, friendly pets to worship on Sunday, October 4. You are also welcome to bring a picture of your pet if you prefer. The blessing of pets will occur at the start of both services that Sunday.

STEWARDSHIP ESSENTIALS

October brings closure to our stewardship campaign. We've asked for pledges of financial support as well as your time and talents for the coming year. While we appreciate the difficulty of making these commitments, they allow for better planning of our annual budget and programs.

With grateful hearts, we thank everyone who has pledged financial, time, and talent contributions to our life here at St. Stephen and our service to the broader community. If you have not yet turned in a pledge card or talent survey, it is not too late. You may drop either in the offering basket at any time.

And, if you are uncomfortable making such pledges, we continue to appreciate your contributions as they occur.

STEPHEN MINISTRY AT ST. STEPHEN

Our congregation is blessed with a valuable resource in our Stephen Ministers.

The name of Stephen Ministry is derived from the Apostle Stephen, who is primarily the patron saint of deacons. "Deacon" comes from the Greek word, diákonos – meaning servant or minister. Stephen Ministers are called to serve and minister to our community.

Some 20 years ago, when I was commissioned, the group of Stephen Ministers serving our congregation was extraordinary. The men and women who completed the 50 hours of training felt a sincere calling to serve and minister to their brothers and sisters at St. Stephen.

Now, out of retirement, I see that the current group of Stephen Ministers serving our congregation is also following their calling and are extraordinary in their ministry. Their care, love, dedication, and willingness to serve those in need is beyond compare.

Stephen Ministers meet with their care receivers for an hour or so every week or two. Some folks are dealing with major, life-changing issues and others have hit a rough patch in their lives and need some help. Big or small, whatever you are currently struggling with, a Stephen Minister, a compassionate listener, can help you along your journey. You don't have to walk alone.

Your caregiver is not a friend or a relative. Rather, they are someone coming into the relationship with a clean slate – with no preconceived notions or baggage. The point of your conversations with them is solely for them to listen to you and to help you, holding all that you say in confidence.

For more information or to discuss having a caregiver, please contact Pastor Jon or Stephen Leader Bill Dichtel.

Working with a Stephen Minister is not a sign of weakness – it is a sign of strength. You will be taking an important step toward healing.

Sandy Peterkin, Stephen Minister

MEN'S & WOMEN'S BREAKFASTS

- Tuesday, October 6 – Women are invited to join together for breakfast.
- Thursday, October 8 – Men are invited to join together for breakfast.

Both gatherings take place at 8:00 a.m. on the first full week of the month at the Colonial Pancake House, at the corner of Page Street and Penniman Road, Williamsburg, VA. The get-togethers promote conversation and friendship in a casual setting.

thank you

Thank you for your generous gift to FISH.

FISH is working to provide more protein like eggs and frozen meat for our clients. We are receiving boneless, skinless chicken thighs from a local butcher shop and that has been such a plus for our clients in the Greater Williamsburg Area. With the price of eggs coming back down, we are able to give a dozen eggs instead of a six-pack.

Thank you for supporting our Operating Expenses Fund.

Jill Holroyd, FISH President

Thank you for your in-kind donation of three pounds of food to the Williamsburg House of Mercy.

On average we receive 18,000 pounds of in-kind donations per month and rely on these to supplement our costs in providing to the most vulnerable in our community.

Thank you for remembering the Williamsburg House of Mercy through your donation.

Liz Buckley, Executive Director

Your generosity is helping us make the world a more loving place.

Thank you so much for the recent gift of $1,200 from your congregation and the spirit of compassion that drives this act. Because of support like yours, children are reuniting with their loved ones, adults with disabilities are living with dignity in caring homes, and students in our Minnick Schools are thriving in supportive, inclusive classrooms. From encouraging families through our counseling services to providing stability for youth in foster care, it is gifts like yours that make this work possible.

Thank you not just for this gift, but for the steadfast support St. Stephen Lutheran Church has shown enCircle for over 30 years. The kindness of your congregation has been a constant source of strength and encouragement in our work. I'm deeply grateful for your steadfast commitment to those we serve.

Thank you for walking alongside enCircle for so many years and for all you continue to make possible.

Ashtyn Porter, Grants & Systems Coordinator

Thank you for your gift of $2,000.00 to ELCA World Hunger.

"From [Christ's] fullness we have all received, grace upon grace." -John 1:16

As a church, we are empowered to love and serve our neighbors as Christ first loved us. Your gifts to the ministries of the ELCA help people around the world feel the power and hope that flow from God's full, boundless love. Drawn together and guided by the Holy Spirit, we accomplish together what none of us could do alone, grace upon grace.

Your generosity is getting at the root causes of hunger and poverty in over 60 countries, including the United States. It provides access to clean water, health care, agriculture, livestock and education, and it advances peace and justice for all people. Through your gifts, you join the whole church in working toward a just world where all are fed.

Thank you for your gracious gifts. You make God's love real.

"CELEBRATING ORDINARY" FALL WOMEN'S WORKSHOP: REGISTRATION COMING IN SEPTEMBER

The St. Stephen Fall Women's Workshop, "Celebrating Ordinary," is being planned as a one-day event at St. Stephen on Saturday, November 7, with a Friday evening social on November 6. The Saturday workshop sessions will feature spiritual themes and highlight their relevance to women's daily lives, with a schedule designed to allow for longer breaks (thanks to feedback from last fall!). Plan to come and bring a friend for the day on Saturday, or Friday evening, or, better yet, both. Details will be shared as planning progresses. Thanks to Sandy Johnson and the planning team for their preparations.

MEN'S RETREAT

Following the wonderfully successful Women's Retreat, Pastor Gerry and Pastor Jon are excited to be ~~copying~~ planning a Men's Retreat at Sandbridge Beach on November 6-8, with a $50 registration fee. Click here to register.

WOMEN'S STUDY – PIONEERING WOMEN FILMMAKERS

Elara Strand will be leading a study on Pioneering Women Filmmakers on Thursday, October 8, at 1:00 p.m. and 7:00 p.m. in the library. She will do a presentation and show some film clips.

Please be ready to share the name of a film you love (not necessarily made by women). Pioneering Women Filmmakers can offer us inspiring insights! This will be a great lead-in to the Women's Workshop on Saturday, November 7, on "Celebrating Ordinary" – using examples of women in the Bible to help us in our "ordinary" lives as we live out our faith. Please join us – and bring a friend!

FALL FILM SERIES

All fall films will take place on the second and fourth Sundays of the month at 2:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Light snacks will be provided. There will be an optional discussion for those who stay afterwards. Each month the movies have a theme: October - Film Noir. Any questions/suggestions contact Elara Strand at elaram@mac.com.

October 11, 2:00 - Double Indemnity (1944) Unrated

Come for: Barbara Stanwyck, Fred MacMurray, and Edward G. Robinson directed by Billy Wilder in one of the classic film noirs. An insurance man and a woman plot to kill the woman's husband, but can they do it? Could they get away with it if they did? There's a femme fatale, double crosses, flashbacks, film noir lighting and language, everything that came to define the genre.
Stay for: A discussion of what film noir is, why it developed when it did, and how it's still popular today. Plus, you know, we'll talk about the film.

October 25, 2:00 - Gaslight (1944) Unrated

Come for: A perfect creepy-but-not-too-scary movie just in time for Halloween. In Gaslight, a woman is slowly going mad while her husband desperately tries to take care of her. Or a husband is manipulating his wife into thinking she is going mad for some darker reason of his own. Starring Ingrid Bergman, Charles Boyer, and Joseph Cotten, directed by George Cukor.
Stay for: Gaslight has become a verb in language today and for good reason. We'll discuss the impact the movie had on the culture, then and now, the real issues it brings up about trust in some of our deepest relationships, and just how remarkable movie it is.

November 22 – Christ the King Sunday, Film Schedule TBD

ST. STEPHEN LUTHERAN PRESCHOOL

September was an exciting month at the preschool! We've loved welcoming both returning and new students and getting to know their families. This season is always fast-paced and full of joy as we begin discovering each child's unique personality. Our teachers have been busy establishing routines, building relationships, and laying the foundation for another wonderful school year.

Throughout the month, we enjoyed many special learning experiences, including our first fire drills, fall portraits, apple tasting, and learning about the apple life cycle. These hands-on activities gave our students opportunities to explore, learn, and experience the joy of discovery together.

Pastor Jon also introduced Chapel to our new students. He taught them a sweet song and explained that chapel time is like having a play date with God – a special time to talk to God, listen to God, sing songs, celebrate God, and give thanks for all the things we are grateful for.

Pastor Jon reminded all of our students of an especially important truth: "God loves us always and forever, no matter what." What a wonderful message for our little ones to carry with them throughout the year.

Thank you for supporting us! We are so grateful for the opportunity to learn, grow, and make special memories with our students in this beautiful church each day. We're looking forward to all that the rest of the school year has in store.

Jessica Kimball, Preschool Director

REFORMATION
Sunday

On Reformation Sunday (October 25), we will be celebrating the ordination anniversaries of two members of our community. Pastor Jim Larsen is celebrating 30 years of ordained ministry, and Pastor Harvey Nelson is celebrating 55 years of ministry! We will have a potluck breakfast between services that day and invite everyone to bring their favorite breakfast dish to share. We are looking for breakfast casseroles, deviled eggs, fruit platters, breakfast cakes and breads, or anything else you would like to share. Breakfast will be from 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. There will be baskets for your cards and notes.

MUSIC NOTES

We welcome three William & Mary students as our 2026-2027 Choral Scholars. What is a Choral Scholar, you ask? I am glad you asked. At the end of 2025, we started this program with one tenor from William & Mary. Last year we were blessed to have the unique singing talents of an alto, a tenor, and a bass, all William & Mary students. These students attend our Wednesday evening Chancel Choir rehearsal, occasionally our Matins choir rehearsal, are section leaders for their voice parts, sing solos and cantor occasionally, and are in general, some very cool fun gifted young people. Below are their “bios” in their own words. We welcome back Brian and Sam from last year, and this year we are fortunate to have Cai join us. Please introduce yourself to them and tell them how much you appreciate their gifts.

Brian Hesse (Bass/Baritone) – I am a senior at William & Mary, pursuing a biology major and music minor. I study vocal performance with Professor Mooney, and the ecology and evolution of marine invertebrates in the Allen Lab. My mother is also an organist and choir director, so I have been singing and ringing in vocal and bell choirs for nearly my entire life.

Cai Luzak (Tenor) – I am the newest member of the St. Stephen Choral Scholars! Outside of singing in the choir, I am a senior at William & Mary studying English. My other activities include the Christopher Wren Singers, an a cappella group, and the William & Mary Drama Department. I’m beyond grateful for the opportunity to sing at this lovely church.

Sam Watkowski (Alto) – Last May, I graduated from William & Mary with a B.A. in Hispanic Studies and Linguistics. Now, I am a graduate student here pursuing an M.A.Ed. in ESL and Bilingual Education. Outside of classes and student teaching, I am a proud member of the American Sign Language Club, Delta Tau Omicron music fraternity, and the school's oldest a cappella group, The Christopher Wren Singers. I played the violin from four years old to 11 years old and have been singing in church and school choirs since elementary school, so music has always meant the world to me.

UPDATE FROM BALLENTINE SCHOLAR KRISTIN BERKEY- ABBOTT, MDIV

Kristin continues to love working as a Synod-appointed minister at Faith Lutheran in Bristol, TN, and teaching at Spartanburg Methodist College...now tenure track. She also transferred to the ELCA’s TEEM program, which is designed for people working in a church setting. She recently met with the Endorsement Panel of the Candidacy Committee, and received full committee endorsement. This means it’s the last phase before ordination.

She will be an intern at Faith Lutheran from Advent to Easter, 2027. She will then meet with the Committee in April, with ordination to follow. She is looking forward to a bi-vocational ministry, having found joy in both teaching and ministering in a small, rural church.

She continues to appreciate the love and support that St. Stephen and her family have provided.

For more information about the Ballentine Scholarship Fund, contact Emily Rossiter, Harvey Nelson or Sandy Johnson.

OCTOBER BAPTISMAL ANNIVERSARIES

The significance of baptism, Luther teaches in the Small Catechism, is “that the old creature in us with all sins and evil desires is to be drowned and die through daily contrition and repentance, and on the other hand that daily a new person is to come forth and rise up to live before God in righteousness and purity forever.”

Your baptismal anniversary is an opportunity to light a baptismal candle and to give some prayer time to reflecting on your experiences during the past year on your journey in faith!
